Hanging with the Catenoid
Professor David Hoffman

ABSTRACT:
The curve formed by a hanging chain is called a catenary. A surface of revolution formed from a catenary is called a catenoid. In this talk I will discuss these shapes and some of their remarkable properties.

sumo.stanford.edu/speakers