Arithmetic Graph Theory

Dr. George Schaeffer

In this talk I will prove that every totally real algebraic integer occurs as a graph eigenvalue (in fact, a tree eigenvalue!). This result, due to Salez, leads us to a trove of accessible open questions in what I call arithmetic graph theory. (My interest in such questions is ultimately based on the theory of modular forms, but sadly we won’t get to talk much about those!)